Family Literacy Grants

Dollar General Literacy Foundation

Support an organization's intergenerational literacy program combining adult learning, children's education and family activities.

Funding and timing

Up to $10,000 per organization

January 2027 opening announced; confirm the new deadline.

Check your eligibility

• School, public library or eligible nonprofit providing literacy services.

• Organization must be in a state served by Dollar General and within 15 miles of a store; verify the address with the funder.

• Program must include adult education, children's education, and parent-and-child activities. Families do not apply directly.

Check the purchase

Software and instructional materials can support the broader family-literacy program.

Confirm the specific Glow product, learner count, license period and purchasing method with the funder before buying. Category eligibility is not product approval.

Where and how to submit

Who receives the request

Dollar General Literacy Foundation · Family Literacy review team

An authorized organization representative submits in the foundation's portal during an open cycle. Prepare now; use the current cycle's form when it opens.

Submission steps

1. Register the organization in the portal. Schools need their NCES school and district IDs; public libraries use their IMLS ID. Allow up to 48 hours for verification.

2. Select Family Literacy, complete the screening questions and transfer your edited project sections into the matching application fields.

3. Enter the requested budget, attach required evidence, review all answers and submit in the portal. Save the confirmation and a copy of the application.

- Project description, timeline and itemized budget
- Current Glow quote and any required organizational approvals

Official program sources

Program descriptions and next cycles

Family Literacy funds organizations that combine adult education, children's learning and parent-and-child activities. An individual family does not apply for this grant. The next cycle opens in January 2027; prepare a plan covering all three components before applications open.

Eligibility, awards and eligible expenses

Awards can reach $10,000, with software, teaching materials, staffing and technology among the eligible costs. The organization must provide direct literacy services in a Dollar General state, within 15 miles of a store. An organization representative completes screening and submits the program budget in the foundation's portal.

Request an itemized Glow quote

Ask for the product, learner count, license start/end dates, any fees and renewal terms. Scholarship purchases may need individual-student pricing or an allocation of a shared subscription. A grant does not automatically fund renewals.
