Homeschool Curriculum Grants

HSLDA Compassion

Curriculum assistance for qualifying privately funded homeschool families experiencing significant financial need.

Funding and timing

$300–$400 per eligible child

Published application windows: January 1–February 28, April 1–June 30 and September 1–October 31. HSLDA may shorten or cancel a window if funds run out; confirm availability and the cutoff time in its portal.

Check your eligibility

• Current HSLDA membership, significant financial need and legal custody are required.

• At least three months of homeschooling, with a child age 6–19. Most instruction must take place at home under the parent's curriculum choices.

• Families receiving public homeschool funding, including an ESA, are not eligible.

Check the purchase

Qualifying curriculum purchases; ask HSLDA to confirm a Glow subscription before including it.

Confirm the specific Glow product, learner count, license period and purchasing method with the funder before buying. Category eligibility is not product approval.

Where and how to submit

Who receives the request

HSLDA Compassion · Curriculum Grant review team

The parent or legal guardian applies through their HSLDA account. Prepare the learning-resource portion here and complete financial questions in HSLDA's secure application.

Submission steps

1. Confirm current membership and all grant criteria, then sign in to HSLDA Compassion during an open period.

2. Prepare the requested homeschool and financial evidence, two references and major purchase list. Add the Glow resource and current quote to that list.

3. Complete the official application, submit and retain confirmation. If awarded, spend funds and submit receipts and the usage report within six months of approval.

Curriculum grant eligibility and application

HSLDA offers $300–$400 per eligible child to member families with significant financial need who privately fund their homeschool. Public homeschool funds, including ESAs, exclude eligibility. At least three months of homeschooling a child age 6–19 is required. Prepare financial and homeschool evidence, two references and a purchase list for HSLDA; application windows depend on available funds.

Purchase rules and grant reporting

Core-subject curriculum, tutoring, materials and qualifying educational technology are eligible categories. Spend the grant and submit the usage report and receipts within six months of approval. Receipts must identify the vendor, purchase date, items, cost and payment. Ask HSLDA to confirm the specific Glow subscription.

Request an itemized Glow quote

Ask for the product, learner count, license start/end dates, any fees and renewal terms. Scholarship purchases may need individual-student pricing or an allocation of a shared subscription. A grant does not automatically fund renewals.
